Power through every rep with added confidence wearing the adidas Wrist Protectors. Designed to shield your wrists and forearms from discomfort and rubbing, the Wrist Protectors provide light compression, cushioning, and extra wrist stability, making them perfect for all kinds of strength training, from kettlebell swings to heavy Olympic lifts. Crafted from high-quality knitted material, the soft, lightweight protectors mould effortlessly to your wrists for a secure and comfortable fit, strengthening your performance every time you train or compete. The bands' absorbent fabric also helps to keep sweat at bay, ensuring your hands are dry for a tighter grip and more focused reps. Easy to wash and quick to dry, the adidas Wrist Protectors are an essential accessory for elevating your workouts.
