Code: 44585

MRP : 126000.00

Camber Curl Triceps use biceps/triceps combined grips, which can accomplish two exercises on one machine. The single-seater adjustable ratchet can not only help the user find the correct movement position, but also ensure the best comfort. The correct exercise posture and force position can make exercise performance better. Support the user to easily switch between two exercise modes with a simple adjustment to complete the main training of the arm without leaving the device.
